

Overview of approaches in identifying and interpreting GWAS associations results. A: DNA based genotyping and sequencing can be used to identify novel loci. B: Functional genomic approaches leverage on transcriptome and epigenome data integration with genetics data to identify the causal mechanisms. C: Available model systems that could be employed to model disease.